I wrote the first draft of the new Pet Outdoors campaign over a year ago and, as you may know, that campaign has been in production since January. Since I started working on it a little over a year ago, I've seen a number of improvements in the printing process and digital options. In addition, one of our clients has helped us build a much stronger, visually appealing, and engaging campaign that will allow us to make a better connection with Pet Lovers. I want to show you all a few of the great things our new campaign will look like. This campaign is being shot in several locations across the U.S. by a very talented and talented team of Pet Lovers. I'm so proud of what our team has accomplished. The new campaign will be launching very, very soon! And, if you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out.
